While you’re exploring your opportunities here, enjoy our picturesque campus. We hope you’ll be calling it home soon.

Why is East Tennessee State University Your Best Choice?

• Teaching comes first at ETSU.
• Average undergraduate class size of 20.
• ETSU offers over 100 degree programs in 11 colleges and schools.
• Every program eligible for accreditation has achieved it.
• Our campus is not only beautiful, it’s also safe. The ETSU safety report can be viewed at www.etsu.edu/dps/safetysecurity/securityreport.aspx
• ETSU is a statewide leader in articulation, sharing over 350 agreements with 17 state and regional colleges and three international institutions, allowing students to transfer credit hours easily.
• Hundreds of students are learning in community service, leadership, and internship programs through community partnerships.

Why Have More Than 15,000 Students Chosen ETSU This Year?

• Organizations & Participation – Over 240 campus organizations, including fraternities, sororities, governance and religious groups, honor societies, and academic clubs, offer leadership and service experiences for everybody.
• Size – The university is large enough to offer a wide range of classes and extracurricular activities, yet small enough to be friendly and caring. A “small town” atmosphere prevails, rather than the impersonal environment that can be found on larger campuses.
• Location – While you are touring campus, take a few moments to look up. The mountains surrounding ETSU are breathtaking in any season. They offer endless possibilities to hike, canoe, ski, or try whitewater rafting.
• Facilities – ETSU’s facilities include the state-of-the-art Charles C. Sherrod Library; Stanton-Gerber Hall for the basic sciences on the James H. Quillen Veterans Affairs Medical Center campus; the Wayne G. Basler Center for Physical Activity, offering everything from areas to practice the martial arts to a climbing wall to racquetball courts; the arboretum, with a walking tour to help you learn about the amazing variety of plant life on the main campus; the Scott M. Niswonger Digital Media Center; the Harry D. Powell Observatory; and the award-winning Warren-Greene Golf Center that supports ETSU’s golf teams.
ETSU FACTS
Founded: 1911
School colors: Navy Blue and Old Gold
Team name: Buccaneers
Unique programs: Special university features include bluegrass and old time country music studies and a master’s degree in storytelling and reading. ETSU has the only accredited College of Public Health in Tennessee. The Scott M. Niswonger Digital Media Center offers the software and hardware used to create special effects for the movie industry. ETSU is developing one of the richest fossil fields in the country located in the neighboring community of Gray, where a $10 million, 33,000-square-foot ETSU and General Shale Brick Natural History Museum and Visitor Center put the past on display. The ETSU Innovation Laboratory links entrepreneurs with investors to create technology-based startup companies for those seeking the challenge of owning a business.

LOCATION
ETSU is located in Johnson City (population 63,000) nestled in the Appalachian foothills near the borders of Virginia and North Carolina. The cities of Kingsport and Bristol TN/VA are nearby. Situated just a few miles off Interstate 81 and Interstate 26, ETSU is easily accessible. The Tri-Cities Regional Airport is also convenient for those traveling by plane.
